‘Call for Papers’(Extension of Time): EWJH Vols. 9-12, Special Issue, 2023
Theme: Surviving the COVID-19 Pandemic Crisis

The COVID-19 pandemic crisis has changed the world in an unprecedented way. It has impacted everyone and everything in varying degrees. This special issue of East West Journal of Humanities (EWJH), volumes 9-12 will focus on how the humanities have been affected, impacted upon, and survived the crisis locally and globally. With this objective, EWJH invites original submissions (4000-8000 words) on the theme of ‘Surviving the COVID-19 Pandemic Crisis’ in the following categories: English language and literature, other literature, linguistics, applied linguists/English language teaching, the history of ideas, philosophy, culture and society, film and media, photography, class, gender, race, as well as library and information studies. We look forward to publishing academic articles that are theoretical in nature as well as papers that employ textual analysis. Additionally, we welcome book reviews (500-800 words).

East West Journal of Humanities (EWJH) is a fully refereed journal published by East West University Center for Research and Training (EWUCRT), East West University, Bangladesh, one of the leading private universities in the country. Each article submitted will be evaluated through a three-step procedure: Initially, it will be checked with Turnitin, a plagiarism detection software, then by the internal review committee to see whether technical specifications are met, and finally, it will be sent to reviewers for blind review. Since the author’s name is not revealed to the reviewer, a submission should not have the writer’s name anywhere in the manuscript. The author should write his/her name, designation(s), affiliation, addresses, telephone number(s), e-mail addresses, and fax number(s) on the cover page. The article should also include an abstract (within 200 words), four to five keywords, and a very brief biographical statement (within 50 words) of the author. Manuscripts must meet professional standards and be computer-composed and double-spaced in Times New Roman 12-point font on A4 paper; table, diagrams, and illustrations (if any) must be camera ready. All submissions must conform to the requirements of academic publication of the American Psychological Association 7th edition (the APA Style Guide). Manuscripts need to cite updated and recent sources, preferably after 2020. Manuscripts submitted for review must not have been published previously or simultaneously submitted elsewhere. The Editor reserves the right to make editorial changes in any manuscript accepted for publication to enhance clarity and/or style.

Submissions, prepared specifically according to the format described above, should be submitted to the Editor, East West Journal of Humanities, East West University Center for Research and Training (EWUCRT) at ewjh@ewubd.edu by 30 November 2022, for consideration in EWJH, Vols. 9-12, Special Issue, 2023.
